WEBB, MEDILL & CO., PUBLISHERS. OFFICE IN THE TRIBUNE BUILDINGS, 53 CLARK STREET. TERMS...EIGHT DOLLARS PER YEAR.

VOL. IX. CHICAGO, FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1856. NO. 228.

THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, PUBLISHED BY WEBB, MEDILL & CO., AT TRIBUNE BUILDINGS, No. 53 Clark Street.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

DAILY TRIBUNE, delivered in the city, by carriers, at Ten Cents per week, or Forty Cents per month, payable to the Collectors.

WEEKLY TRIBUNE, published every Saturday morning, at Two Dollars per annum, in advance, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid within the first month after the receipt of the first number.

TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning, at Five Dollars per annum, in advance, or Six Dollars if not paid within the first month after the receipt of the first number.

The WEEKLY TRIBUNE will contain every thing published in the DAILY, excepting the commercial and local matter. The TRI-WEEKLY will contain all the news, and the latest commercial intelligence, published in the DAILY.

Postmasters will be allowed to collect and remit subscriptions for the WEEKLY TRIBUNE, at the rate of Two Dollars per annum, in advance, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid within the first month after the receipt of the first number.

All communications and remittances should be addressed to the publishers, and not to any individual connected with the establishment.

Letters and communications relating to the business of the office must be post paid, or they will not be taken from the office.

Subscribers will please write their names, Post Office, County and State, plainly, and when they order the address of their paper changed, they must state the Post Office to which it has been sent, as well as that to which they wish it changed.

Persons sending us money for subscription will please state whether they wish the DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY or WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

All communications and remittances should be addressed to WEBB, MEDILL & CO., Publishers, Chicago, Ill.

Subscribers in the country will please remember that the law requires all subscriptions to be paid in advance, and that we shall be governed by the law.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly will please report to us immediately.

Persons wishing to subscribe for the TRIBUNE will please call at the office, or send their orders by mail.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

The Difference.

The bankrupt bill Commercial Bank, in spite of the efforts of the Exchange Company, which is only one of its creatures, to prevent it, will in all probability be passed by the Legislature of this State. They are bound by pledges of public character, and are sure to be all honorable men.

Not a paper that we know of supports the proposition to form Wisconsin, Michigan, Virginia, Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island or New Jersey. In Ohio only two journals sustain it. Pennsylvania is divided. In Philadelphia—and six weeklies in the State—the Locofoco press is for it. In New York the Hunkers defend, while the "Last Issue" and the Anti-Slavery K. N's resist. It is evident, therefore, that the contest must be fought out by the people of public schools, and not entrust the matter to a similar policy as that which we hope the Know-Nothings of this city will not be guilty of. Let Pennsylvania remember that in the long chain of proof of Fillmore's Proficiency principles—to say nothing of his unswerving tendency to those who elected him. Poste nays!

"I need not long inform my dear brethren, that the Lord Jesus Christ, in some of his visits, and related that Free-President Fillmore, then presiding over the Senate, was commanded to cast the casting vote; he was perfectly conscientious that he perfectly consented in the silence which I am just exposed, and that he resolved to vote in favor of the Nebraska bill. I mention the subject in the official room of the Capitol, at the hour of nine o'clock on the most memorable night of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four."

Did so.

Without going into particulars at present, it is sufficient for me to say that I obtained, by the direction of Mr. Fillmore, from the hands of the Secretary of State, the original, the second-engrossed copy of the bill, which I have still not failed to convey a hundred times to our readers, and all who are interested.

Letter of Affairs, by Greeley.

It is natural in Boston and Milwaukie, that the decision of the Supreme Court of the State in the case of Sherman should produce a thrill of horror—the latter because he is himself charged with the custody of the prisoner, and the former because the decision will be followed by the delivery of the fugitive Burnette to the United States authorities. But in other parts they were mollified to the peace of the country; save one or two, who would have had the Governor of Wisconsin to defy the whole power of Congress. They were mollified, we say, by the reflection that the decision might, or just before the shock struck receive the assent, and, being then President, could by a mental reservation, destroying all its force.

Illinois: Honor or no Avalanche.—During a recent rain storm at Cape Breton, an avalanche of snow, impelled by a large body of water, overwhelmed the dwelling-house of a Mr. Chamberlain, crushing in the roof, and destroying the house, and burying in the ruins Mr. Campbell, his wife, mother, three children, and two young girls. Mrs. Campbell, her three children, and one of the girls, perished by the suffocation; and one of the children was rescued soon after the accident. The remainder escaped in the dark without injury.

Fire.—The Cincinnati Commercial of Wednesday has the following in regard to the rescue of Butts out the escape of Gaines' slaves from the hands of the Lewis':

The story of the rescue of Butts on the Henry Lewis', by a man with whom he had a quarrel about a year ago, is said to be denied by the confirmed, and said to be even more interesting than we have related. The man would not be named, but it was stated that he was one of the negroes. Butts had previously pretended to be the owner of them, and upon the alternative of surrendering them or bringing the suit for the same inheritance, the same jury, the same justification. But Slavery comes in to pervert their spirit and turn them from the path of their duty. Fear is the only ingredient that is the long chain of proof of Fillmore's Proficiency principles—to say nothing of his unswerving tendency to those who elected him. Poste nays!

"I need not long inform my dear brethren, that the Lord Jesus Christ, in some of his visits, and related that Free-President Fillmore, then presiding over the Senate, was commanded to cast the casting vote; he was perfectly conscientious that he perfectly consented in the silence which I am just exposed, and that he resolved to vote in favor of the Nebraska bill. Letter of Affairs, by Greeley.

It is natural in Boston and Milwaukie, that the decision of the Supreme Court of the State in the case of Sherman should produce a thrill of horror—the latter because he is himself charged with the custody of the prisoner, and the former because the decision will be followed by the delivery of the fugitive Burnette to the United States authorities. But in other parts they were mollified to the peace of the country; save one or two, who would have had the Governor of Wisconsin to defy the whole power of Congress. They were mollified, we say, by the reflection that the decision might, or just before the shock struck receive the assent, and, being then President, could by a mental reservation, destroying all its force.

If he said, and upon, what we believe to be good authority, that Sumner will attempt to succeed Kennedy, that Seward will attempt to succeed to the judgment of the Court, by force, of course. We know the men's desires, and we know the force of the others; but we do not believe that they have the right to the ideas he has entertained, or the power to use the means which a revolution or an insurrection for the establishment of the peace. At the same time we have announced that we had no fellow-feeling with the Abolitionists, but that we were opposed to agitation, being sure, as they are sure, the whole military force of the Nation, under the righteous judgment of the Supreme Court, could not force the Northern Democracy of Abolition. Mr. Douglas has bravely met the issue, and the Northern and Western people were attached by the delusion of the hour and that they would, to utter amount brought to the test, be found to be true to the Constitution and the Union. We believe in the sanity of the people and that the majority of the people must rule and direct the policy of the people must rule and direct the policy of the people.

But the reason assigned why Pierce should get out of Dodge' way, is more amusing than any hitherto adduction with which the author of the Rebellion till is bespattered.

The President elect Pierce always has, and professed respect for the origin and genius of the Democratic party, and particularly for the Union. He is not a man to be false, we cannot believe that he will unite, in his own person, the meanest baseness with the most base treachery. We think the time has come when the people must rise in their might and by their power to the purity of the ballot-box.

Gaines' Case Again.—The jury on the trial of the man who killed Mr. Adams, the banker, in Rochester, could not agree there, we learn by telegraph last night could not agree.

The British fleet in the Sea of Azoff is stated to have found a terrible enemy in the shape of a large and destructive worm peculiar to the waters of that region. They attack the wooden ships, and eat through their bottoms with the rapidity of an old carpenter boring an auger.

It is stated that Mr. Duncombe, the actor, of Cincinnati, is dead.

Fillmore in America," is about to publish in Paris, a History of the French Revolution. A translation will be simultaneously brought out by the Harpers in this country. M. De Tocqueville is one of the most enlightened and philosophical writers of this century.
